LADIES CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP 2017

HOYLAKE CENTRAL & MELROSE will go forward to represent Merseyside in next season's British Crown Green Ladies Club Championship having come through the qualifying matches at Harrison Park, Wallasey.

With only three teams entered in this eight-a-side competition, Hoylake sat out the first round which saw Pensby defeat Tranmere by 7. Tranmere were back in action straight away as they took on Hoylake in round two but they succumbed to an 18-shot deficit, ending their hopes of qualifying and leaving Pensby and Hoylake Central & Melrose to decide who qualifies for the national finals.

Hoylake Central & Melrose proved too strong for Pensby in the final round match and marched to a 35-chalk victory
