MERSEYSIDE JUNIOR MERIT 2017

RYAN WALTERS reclaimed the Merseyside junior Merit trophy with victory over the defending champion, Jordan McDermott, at Pensby BC in a repeat of the 2015 final. On that occasion, Walters won 21-16 but McDermott got to within three chalks of retaining his title he won at Aigburth St Michaels last year, finishing on the wrong end of an 21-18 scoreline.

Walters received a bye into the quarter-finals where he defeated Jamie Isaac 21-12 and then booked his place in the final courtesy of a 21-14 victory over Owen turner.

McDermott, had a preliminary round game against Mark Wood and was relieved to get out a 21-18 winner. From here he was rarely troubled and saw off Michael Cavanagh to 10 and Jake McElnay to 9 on his way to the final.
